

Please leave our no call list in Indiana as it is. It is such a relief not to have harassing tele-marketing calls, this includes banks. They are rude and will not take no for an answer. This has been a law that has worked and is very much appreciated